

WeRPN's 4th Annual Research Symposium – Poster Presentations – 2025

Poster Presentation Title	Presenter
RPN Leaders' Experiences Responding to Workplace Violence and Harassment in Home and Community Care	Sonia Nizzer, VHA Home Healthcare
Enhancing Stroke Rehabilitation Interdisciplinary Teams: Exploring Rehabilitation Nursing Practices and Perspectives	Dr. Eric Tanlaka, University of Windsor
Nurses' contributions to "getting them better" in rehabilitation units: a case in Canada	Dr. Denise Connely, Western University
Consensus of workplace factors for staff retention in long-term care: A Delphi study	Dr. Winnie Sun, Ontario Tech University
Confronting Anti-Black Racism: Advancing Equity and Supporting Black RPNs in Healthcare Practice	Dr. Nadia Prendergast, Toronto Metropolitan University
RPNs and Role Clarity: A qualitative study of the lived experience of RPNs and interprofessional collaboration in an inpatient rehabilitation hospital	Natalie Weiser, Unity Health Toronto
One Year, Countless Lessons: My Journey Through a Research Fellowship	Attila Kovacs, Ontario Tech University
Emotional Model of Care Project: Literature review of Existing Evidence related to the Concepts of Compassionate Care and Person-Centered Care Approach in Long-Term Care (LTC)	Oghenefegor Uwejeya, Ontario Tech University
Bridging Educational Grant in Nursing: At a Glance	Kim Reid, WeRPN
Research Communications for RPNs	Sarah Morrisette, Toronto Metropolitan University
Evaluating how WeRPN's communication channels (social media, newsletters, emails) engage both member and non-member RPNs	Suad Hersi, Toronto Metropolitan University
Priorities for psychological health and safety workforce retention in long-term care: Insights from leaders	Jen Calver, Ontario Tech University
Data informed, goal oriented transitional care	Lisa Herron, SE Health
Building a Diverse, Equitable, and Inclusive Long-Term Care Home: Helping Each Other Thrive,	Marilyn Oliver, WeRPN